

Intern in Investment Strategy (m/w)
City	Frankfurt am Main
Job Description	The Investment strategy is part of the "Chief Investment Office" area. The department is responsible for pooling research opinions. On this basis, the team formulates a market opinion tailored to private and corporate clients, determines asset allocation for different target portfolios and is responsible for its implementation in different mandate solutions. Your tasks: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Create daily reports on the performance and risk management of the funds • Participate in the revision and development of reports • Support in the fund selection process and portfolio management of two macro based funds • Analyze the asset allocation • Follow-up on monthly meetings regarding markets • Follow-up on market forecasts, implement and communicate changes to the relevant departments • More tasks added based on progress Required skills: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Enrolled student in Economics, Mathematics, Statistics or similar studies (Master) • Very good knowledge of MS Office, especially Excel • Good knowledge of global Capital Markets and macroeconomic contexts • Previous experience with Bloomberg preferred • Knowledge of statistical software usage (Matlab, R...) is an advantage • Strong communication, problem solving attitude and patience • English fluent written and spoken, German is a plus • Team player Company: Deutsche Bank AG Location: Frankfurt am Main Working Time: Full-time Start Date: Beginning of September Duration: Till the end of the year, two months extension possible Contact: Felix Schmidt, felix.schmidt@db.com Please send informal Email with your resume and a transcript of records to the above mentioned email address.